A Bible Story

RESCUE
HOPE | PURPOSE | LIFE

Moses and the Ten Commandments

God spoke to His people from Mount Sinai and taught them a way of faithfulness, respect, and love.

God Spoke at Sinai

God reminded the people, “I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.” Then He began to teach them His commandments.

Thou Shalt Have No Other Gods

God says, “Thou shalt have no other gods before me.” He wants His people to trust Him, love Him, and place no person or thing in His place.

Thou Shalt Not Make Idols

They were not to make images to worship, bow down to, or serve. Disobedience brings pain, but God's faithful love reaches many generations of those who love Him.

Honor God's Name

God teaches that His name must not be used falsely, carelessly, or disrespectfully. His name is holy and should be spoken with love and reverence.

Remember the Sabbath Day

God says, “Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.” It is a special day to rest, give thanks, and spend time with God.

The Day of Rest

For six days people may work. The seventh is a Sabbath for the whole household, workers, visitors, and animals. God made everything in six days, rested, and blessed the seventh day.

Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother

God teaches, “Honour thy father and thy mother.” Respecting them, listening to them, and caring for them helps us live well and long in the land God gives.

Thou Shalt Not Kill

Every person's life is valuable. God says, "Thou shalt not kill." His people must protect life, treat others with respect, and seek peace.

Be Faithful in Marriage

God says, “Thou shalt not commit adultery.” He teaches that husband and wife should be faithful, care for one another, and honor the promise they make when forming their family.

Thou Shalt Not Steal

We must not take what belongs to someone else. God wants His people to be honest, respect what belongs to others, and return what is not theirs.

Thou Shalt Not Bear False Witness

God says, “Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.” That means not accusing others with lies, but telling the truth and protecting their good name.

Thou Shalt Not Covet

We must not covet another person's house, husband or wife, workers, animals, or anything else. God teaches us to live gratefully with what we have.

A Way for the People

Moses received these words to teach the people. The Ten Commandments show how to be faithful to God and how to treat other people with respect and love.