Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

A story about the living water Jesus offers to everyone.

On the Way to Samaria

Jesus left Judea to return to Galilee. On the way He needed to pass through Samaria, a region where people lived whom the Jews usually avoided.

Beside the Well

Near the city of Sychar was Jacob's well. Tired from the journey, Jesus sat down to rest beside the well. It was about noon.

Give Me a Drink

While the disciples had gone to buy food, a Samaritan woman came to draw water. Jesus kindly said to her, “Give me to drink.”

An Unexpected Conversation

The woman was surprised. Jews and Samaritans usually did not associate with one another, but Jesus did not let their differences keep Him from speaking with respect and kindness.

The Gift of God

Jesus explained, “If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.”

The Living Water

Jesus was not speaking only about water from the well. He said that whoever received the water He gives would have within a spring leading to everlasting life. The woman wanted to receive it.

Jesus Knew Her Life

Jesus asked her to call her husband. When she answered that she had no husband, Jesus showed that He knew her whole story. The woman understood that He was a prophet.

Worship in Truth

The woman asked which place was right for worship. Jesus taught her that true worshipers worship the Father in spirit and in truth.

I Am the Messiah

The woman said she was waiting for the Messiah, who would explain all things. Then Jesus plainly told her, “I that speak unto thee am he.”

Come and See Him

The woman left her waterpot beside the well and ran to the city. She told everyone, “Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?”

The Fields Are Ready

The disciples returned with food. Jesus explained that His greatest joy was to do the Father's will. Then He showed them the people coming and said that the fields were ready for harvest.

Many Believed

The Samaritans came to meet Jesus and asked Him to stay with them. Jesus remained there two days, and many more believed when they heard His words.

The Saviour of the World

The people told the woman, “Now we believe, for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.” The living water Jesus gives is for everyone.
